

First study aboard and patriotic industrial fund release and signing ceremony

June 30, 2016, Western Returned Scholars Association Chinese Overseas - Educated Scholars Association's first seminar forum and study aboard and patriotic industrial fund release and signing ceremony was held in Jiashan, Zhejiang. Educated scholars Association's deputy secretary, "Liu Xue Sheng" magazine president Xu Suining, CIAM's CEO Mr. Lo Wing Yat together with students and local responsible comrades were jointly attended the meeting.

"Shan Xin Study Aboard and Patriotic Industrial Fund" is the pioneer fund in China which are especially target in the investments and entrepreneurs returning from overseas.

Mr. Lo Wing Yat stated that CIAM will mobilize the internal resources of the Company to work closely with the investees in Jiashan. Combining the investment and financing resources of each parties, the team will strive to realize the synergic effect of the industries, maximize the value of the fund and target to cultivate local companies as the competitive and influential top enterprises in Jiashan.

